HAT-A-THON

24 HOURS LIVE

THE BLUE REVIEW

JUNE 2021

Dear #BlueSoldiers,
I don't know about you but I am still recovering from the whirlwind that was the 24 hr Hat-A-Thon on June 10-11th. If you missed it you can get a snapshot of what 24 hours looks like here, in this awesome 2 min reel.

The Hat-A-Thon was to bring awareness to #HATNOTHATE, and raise money for our partner organization The It Gets Better Project.

We had guests from all over the world as far as New Zealand and as close as my dining room chair. We crafted together, ate together, cried together but most importantly we talked about how #HATNOTHATE, and spreading the message how bullying has affected us all. Every guest that came on had a different story as to how bullying had impacted their life. But the truth is, we are all impacted by this. But we can all make a difference. That's what I hope the Hat-A-Thon and #HATNOTHATE inspire all of you to do! Make the change and Make a hat!

We are entering hat season strong and I believe that with all of you out there we can unite together and end bullying one blue hat at a time! August 1st is our deadline for all of the blue hats so send them and don't hold back!

I love watching Shi and Babs. Their relationship is heartwarming and I love listening to Babs telling stories.

When Adam was on and your mom was there. You drove up the donation dollars because of your great interactions with family. So sweet.
- Charyn M.

Loved the interplay last night between Shi and Sarah while making HNH earrings and the blue hands were fun to see.
- Trish D.

So many favorite moments- Love the banter with you and your mom! The love of your family is palpable and I had tears when your Dad was on.

Was grateful to participate with Knit in the Pit this morning- I was pushed outside of my comfort zone to appear and I'm grateful.

Have been watching the Shi Show since last year and have learned so much about so many makers out there that I never knew about. Thank you for all you do Shira and team- Much appreciated
